

SARASOTA
Herald-Tribune

GOOD DEEDS

Published: Monday, July 8, 2013 at 1:00 a.m.

Last Modified: Friday, July 5, 2013 at 11:32 p.m.

Community Haven for Adults and Children with Disabilities, Inc. received contributions from the following organizations and individuals: Temple Emanu-El volunteers spent their Mitzvah Day cleaning up the 32- acre campus; Buffalo Lodging/Comfort Suites University Parkway hosted an Easter Egg Hunt/Pizza Party for Selby Preschool children; Peter and Sherry Tracy donated an orchid through the Community Foundation of Sarasota County; Phyllis Siskel funded a painting project for several buildings; University Parkway Home Depot donated more than 40 gallons of paint; The Fresh Market donated herbs and flowering plants for the plant nursery; The Selby Foundation provided a grant to re-purpose the Selby Academy building; Bradenton Marauders baseball players visited adult clients for an informal baseball game and autograph session; The Fry Family Foundation provided a grant for building a campus athletic court and computer lab; Harvest Methodist Church hosted a pizza party for the adult residents; Joanie Been of IRISS Corp. donated her time to put together the Annual Report; Janine Scanni of Wells Fargo, University Parkway secured a $1,000 grant; The Service Club of Manatee County provided a $7,000 grant; The Florida Winefest & Auction awarded a $5,000 grant for the Transitions Program; The Patterson Foundation contributed $300 as part of the 36-Hour Giving Challenge; The Miracle League of Sarasota hosted an end-of-season party; the Haven's director of adult services, Brad Jones, coached the New York Yankees Miracle League Team this season; The Manatee Community Foundation provided a $2,500 grant for summer camps and supplies for the Transitions Summer Program; Venice Yacht Club awarded a grant of $1,000 for athletic equipment; and the Lakewood Ranch Community Fund provided a $3,500 grant for the Transitions Program for Teens.