

Community Haven High School Leadership Camp Goes High Tech

January 19, 2013 – AmericanTowns.com

SARASOTA, FL---For three adventure filled days, December 27th-29th, 2012 Community Haven High Schoolers joined North Port, Venice, Booker, Bayshore, and Palmetto High Schools in challenging team building and leadership skill activities including a High Ropes Course at the FFA Leadership Training Center in Haines City, FL.

Community Haven High School High Tech Program, 4405 Desoto Road, Sarasota, offers an enriched high school to career academic experience exploring and preparing for careers in science, technology, engineering and arts-related disciplines. The highly individualized program prepares students with disabilities, grades 9-12, for post-secondary education and high tech careers.
