

SCENE & HEARD

LOWE'S TEAM VOLUNTEERS TIME TO COMMUNITY HAVEN

Lowe's Heroes Team from Lowe's Store 0772 on State Road 70 in Bradenton is pictured with Community Haven's President and CEO Marla Doss. The hardworking team, coordinated by Lowe's HR Manager Amy Rylott and Project Manager Mark Maurer, beautified the front of Community Haven's Selby Administrative and Learning Center Building with solar lit posts, roping and flowering plants, which also serve to protect a huge live oak tree canopy root system from vehicular traffic. PHOTOS PROVIDED

Published: August 9, 2013

Lowe's team volunteers time to Community Haven

Lowe's Heroes Team from Lowe's Store 0772 on State Road 70 in Bradenton is pictured with Community Haven's President and CEO Marla Doss. The hardworking team, coordinated by Lowe's HR Manager Amy Rylott and Project Manager Mark Maurer, beautified the front of Community Haven's Selby Administrative and Learning Center Building with solar lit posts, roping and flowering plants which also serve to protect a huge live oak tree canopy root system from vehicular traffic.